and Laurier Ren Agreement
ry Difficult.

15.—Contrary to the h, Canadian and Ameri-
the Bering Sea confer-not able to finish their uous sessions lasting until g, the experts had not been all their differences. It a therefore to continue the arrow. Up to the time of the experts had made good ching an agreement on all but r reserved propositions. These, ed, can be agreed upon during g session to-morrow, so that the be signed and the meeting con-as the experts are concerned, ll make available all the data for considering the vital diplomacy of stopping pelagic sealing. tion is that General Foster, Sir Laurier and Sir Louis Davies will to-morrow afternoon to go over the results reported by the experts, and, if possible, agree upon a basis of settlement.

The outcome of this diplomatic meeting continues to be much in doubt.
It is understood that the proposition of the American representatives involves two features: First, that Canada, through the imperial authorities, shall consent to the stoppage of pelagic sealing for one year, and second, that negotiations shall be opened for a suspension of sealing beyond this term of one year.
It was intimated to-night that the Canadians might make a counter proposition, not going as far as the American representatives desire in the way of limiting pelagic sealing, but yet offering a possible ground for amicable adjustment. In equally reliable quarters it is stated that if the issue assumed the form of pelagic sealing or no pelagic sealing, as now seemed likely, it would be extremely difficult to reconcile the differences. In view of the continuance of the meeting, Sir Wilfrid and Sir Louis will not leave until to-morrow night or Wednesday.

MEANEST OF ALL SWINDLERS.
Took a Poor Man's Overcoat As Security for a Bogus Job.

Detectives Feeney and Fogarty, of the Central Office, arraigned in the Centre Street Police Court yesterday the meanest swindler met with in some time. He was Henry B. Kelly, alias "The Irish King," whose picture is in the Rogues' Gallery.

While walking along Canal street yesterday afternoon the detectives saw Kelly stop a poorly dressed man, whisper with him for a second, and then saw the poorly dressed man take off his overcoat and give it to Kelly. The detectives arrested Kelly and detained the other man. He was Arthur Maecker, of No. 36 East Fourth street, a member of Company K, of the Twelfth Regiment. Maecker told Magistrate Braun that he had been out of work for several months, and during that time had often gone without food. He said Kelly had stopped him on the street and had asked him if he wanted to secure a job, and receiving a glad answer in the affirmative, had asked him to go to a certain address for tools and taken his overcoat as "security."

Take Good Advice.

Many Men and Women Have Met Disaster, Because They Neglected to Do So.

"It is a wonder people live as long as they do," said a leading physician while conversing with some newspaper friends recently. "Every breath that is taken contains poison. Millions of germs, so small they cannot be seen by the naked eye, are drawn into the lungs, the throat, the stomach, and while many of them die, thousands of them live and feed upon the body and cause what is called disease. Germs are the source of all disease; kill the germs and you cure the disease."

So interested were his listeners with the above remarks that the doctor continued: "You naturally ask what will kill these germs? I am sorry to say, only a few things. The surest safeguard against all germs is pure whiskey—pure, mind you. Germs do not thrive where it is used judiciously. Unfortunately, there is but little pure whiskey to be had, and I know of but one which I can absolutely recommend, and that is Duffy's. I have analyzed it carefully and found no fatal oil, no impurities, and nothing that could harm even a child. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is recommended by such high medical authorities as Dr. Henry A. Mott, Prof. William T.
Cutler, Dr. Garfield and others. Understand me, I advocate the use of whiskey only as a medicine and not as a beverage. As a medicine, it is strengthening, restoring and food, and is indeed in the highest terms. Under no circumstances, even as a medicine, use any but the pure, and do not allow any druggist to persuade you to take any other."

A LESSON TAUGHT BY THE CROWDS.

NOT THE $5 RATE GENEROUSLY GIVEN THROUGH THE OLD YEAR,

But the Skill and Faith and Fame of the Practice Account for the Throngs of People and the General Interest.
Doctor Copeland Gives the $5 Rate Until January 1, 1898, to All.

It would be a very simple-minded person who would attempt to account by the $5 rate in and of itself for the crowds thriving the Copeland offices, for the public interest, for the general gratitude over the extension, and for the very avalanche of letters from sick people.

The fact that an institution was giving medical treatment for $5 a month would certainly account for none of these things.
Of course, sick people like to feel that they are receiving medical care at a small cost, but that is only a minor consideration. What sick people want to feel and know, what their loving and anxious families and friends want to feel and know, is that they are receiving the very best medical treatment that can be obtained.

If some horse doctor offered to treat Consumptives at $5 a month, or if the devil himself, or some devilish person, offered to teach etiquette and mathematics to little boys and girls at $5 a month, it would not imply any great humanity to the consumptives or to the children. Bad treatment and bad teaching are bad, even if "given free."

No, the throngs of patients, the interest and the gratitude are accounted for not by the $5 rate, but by the fact that all these people know that under this rate they are being admitted to the benefits of a practice that has commanded for years the respect of the profession and the public.

They know that under this fee, low as it seems, they are obtaining care and treatment that they could not obtain anywhere else for any fee, high or low.

They know that under this opportunity they obtain the best treatment and the best professional skill.

They know that under this opportunity, they are going to be cured.

And it is this that accounts for the throngs of people, the interest and the gratitude and the avalanche of letters and (what is of more importance than anything else), for the warm and hearty commendation of right-thinking people.

All patients applying for treatment and all patients renewing treatment before Jan. 1, 1898, will be treated UNTIL CURED at the uniform rate of $5 a month, medicines included. This applies to all patients and all diseases.

DOCTORS SAID HER EAR DRUMS WERE GONE.

Mrs. David Walker, Waterloo, N.Y.: "An attack of SCARLET FEVER when a child left me totally deaf in my left ear.
About eleven years ago my right ear began to fail me and I was rapidly growing deaf. I grew worse until I was scarcely able to hear anything."

"I consulted one doctor after another and was told that the drums of my ears were entirely destroyed. One doctor nearly ruined my ears and I grew rapidly worse under his care."

"I tried to use patent ear drums, but instead of helping my hearing they made it worse. I had given up hope when I came to visit my sister, Mrs. W.
D. Mattox, 3040 Amsterdam avenue.
She persuaded me to go to the Copeland Institute. At that time I was in a terrible condition from nervousness brought on by my deafness and by the continual roaring and hissing noises in my head. I had no rest day or night. I could not sleep for the clattering in my ears."

"I could not hear anything in the way of conversation, could not hear the going on the street cars, the door bell ring, the street traffic or any of the ordinary sounds.
When I tried to play the piano I could not sing, for I did not know whether I was on the key. My voice sounded strange, and every one would have to shout at me to convey any idea to my mind."

"Doctor Copeland said he would cure my right ear and he has kept his word. After a few weeks

the Roaring Noises Ceased, the pains in my head left me and I was able to sleep quietly and restfully."

One of Doctor Copeland's lectures upon the condition of impaired hearing relates solely to head noises (condition known by the doctors as Tinnitus Aurium). This paper will be mailed free to any address.

HOW CATARRH OFTEN AFFECTS THE VOICE.

Harry B. Coleman, Liveryman at Millbrook, N. Y.: "Had it not been for my children at Cold Spring I suppose I would have had to suffer on for years, but I took their advice and am now a well man. My

John Mackey Somerset, Bermuda, treated by correspondence at his distant home for deafness and cured.

head seemed to be always filled up, and the dropping of mucus back of the palate caused me to hawk and spit constantly. It gave me no peace. My tonsils were inflamed and swollen, my voice was harsh and husky and I could not sing. I was under the care of one physician for a year. I rode thirty miles twice each week to see him, but got no benefit. On the advice of my friends I consulted Dr. Copeland. Today all the symptoms have left me. I feel like a new man."

TEST BY THE
INSURANCE COMPANY.

H. B. Parsons, Bainbridge, N. Y.: "I have been completely cured of severe and long-standing Catarrh of head and throat by the Copeland treatment. I had my life insured and had been in one company for 25 years, but my condition was so bad from the Catarrh before my treatment that the company refused to renew my policy. Now that I am cured they will again accept me."

CATARRH OF STOMACH, NOT CONSUMPTION.

George W. Myers, 382 Second street, Jersey City: "What little food I ate caused me misery. I belched gas and was nauseated all the time. I was in constant pain all over my body. I was dizzy and weak and for days was nearly blind. My rest was broken and my sleep did me no good. I thought I had Consumption and was satisfied that death would shortly relieve me of my sufferings. I was advised by a friend to consult Doctor Copeland, who told me my trouble came from the stomach, not the lungs. At the end of one month I had gained six pounds. The pains are entirely gone, my head is clear, I sleep well, and for the first time in years of doctoring I am gaining ground."

NERVOUS DISEASE.
Mrs. H. M. Biddell, Paterson, N. J.: "I have been subject to nervous headaches since I was a child. The attacks were very violent, and would often confine me to bed. I had sore spots on my head, and the slightest touch would make me groan with pain. I was never free from intense pain. After three months of the Copeland treatment I found the pain much less severe and gradually my head began to feel natural. My eyes stopped aching, the sore spots were all gone, and my general health has been built up."

Patients who live at a distance can be treated with perfect success

A Greater Puritan

THESE are the days of greater things. In this aggressive, progressive country of ours we are not satisfied to stand still. The "good enough" thing of today will not be good enough for tomorrow. We must have something better and better and always better.

The Puritan

that was good enough for last year—good enough to eclipse the records of all new publications the world over, good enough to establish itself on a firm paying basis on the very first issue, good enough to outrank in picturesqueness and beauty and general merit any publication of its class anywhere—is not good enough for this year.

It is one thing to know this; it is another to act on it.
We have acted on it: Our first move was an increase of fifty per cent in the size of the paper. This change was made last month. It was only the beginning. We shall spend the money, and have the art and the literary features and the fine paper and the fine printing necessary to place THE PURITAN far and away in the lead of all publications of its class.

There's no place that's half as
